ARION BALL LURES EYES AND FEET.

Sumptuous Pageant to Precede the Dancing in the Garden.

GLITTERING ALLEGORIES.

The German Society Promises a Finer Spectacle To-night Than Ever Before.

Music, dancing and the subtle art of mystery are to be excited by the Arion Ball in the Madison Square Garden to-night. More elations than ever are to be the society's directors. More beautiful than ever are to be gowns, faces and jewels.

Fifty members of the Phoenix Athletic Club will lead as harpists, pantaloons, pantaloons and all other characters of the Commedia dell'Arte, the pompous and charmingly pedantic masquerade.

In a chariot emblematic of the world's career, that is, a scaphony, ten women are to be, Columbia leading with her baton; France promulgating fame with her trumpet; Germany playing the first violin; Russia, the bass viol; Italy, the clarinet; Japan, the flute; Austria, the guitar; England, the bagpipe; Spain, the tambourine; Turkey, the cymbals. The followers of the chariot are to represent famous men of all nations, including Captain Dreyfus, whom the French army has disgraced and exiled.

In the second chariot, emblematic of Independence and Liberty, are to be slaves, with broken chains, of the foot of Lincoln; heroes of the war of 1812, heroes of the revolution, and of the war for Cuba. The followers of this chariot are to be like-minded of the men who have pledged their lives for liberty everywhere, including Holston in his gravest torture, the persecution of girls insisting upon being him.

In the third chariot of civilization and culture are to be an emigrant with her child, Buffalo Bill, American Indians, and women in gowns and attitudes of History, Astronomy, Music, and the plastic arts. Among the followers are to be Grote, Mommsen, Goethe, Schiller, Wagner, Mozart, Mendelssohn, Thormörsen, Menzel and the sculptors of Altemann's triumph.

In the Chariot of Electricity are to be Franklin and his kite, Morse, Edison and Edison in his glory. The telephone girls, the models of the photographs, the professional beauties, the princesses, and Cyano de Boregic, with an illuminated dress, are to follow this chariot.

After this, the End-of-the-Century Chariot will symbolize in an amusing group the fashions of the "Degeneration." Fourteen women in the dress of men are to be among the followers of this chariot at the end of the pageant. Prince Carnival and Arion are to be at the rear.

Catarrh of Stomach.

A Pleasant, Simple, but Safe and Effective Cure for It.

Catarrh of the stomach has long been considered the next thing to incurable. The usual symptoms are a full or bloating sensation after eating, accompanied sometimes with sour or watery risings, a formation of gases, causing pressure on the heart and lungs and difficult breathing, headaches, sickle appetite, nervousness and a general played out, languid feeling.

There is often a foul taste in the mouth, coated tongue and if the interior of the stomach could be seen it would show a shiny, inflamed condition.

The cure of this common and obstinate trouble is found in a treatment which causes the food to be readily, thoroughly digested before it has time to ferment and irritate the delicate mucous surfaces of the stomach. To secure a prompt and healthy digestion is the one necessary thing to do, and when normal digestion is secured the catarrhal condition will have disappeared.

According to Dr. Harlanston, the safest and best treatment is to use after each meal a tablet, composed of Diastase, Aseptic Pepsin, a little Nux, Golden Seal and fruit acids. These tablets can now be found at all drug stores under the name of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets, and not being a patent medicine can be used with perfect safety and assurance that healthy appetite and thorough digestion will follow their regular use after meals.

Mr. N. J. Booher, of 2710 Dearborn st., Chicago, Ill., writes: "Catarrh is a local condition resulting from a neglected cold in the head, whereby the lining membrane of the nose becomes inflamed and the poisonous discharge therefrom passing backward into the throat reaches the stomach, thus producing catarrh of the stomach. Medical authorities prescribed for me for three years for catarrh of stomach without cure, but to-day I am the happiest of men after using only one box of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets. I cannot find appropriate words to express my good feeling. I have found flesh, appetite and sound rest from their use."

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets is the simplest and most convenient remedy for any form of indigestion, catarrh of stomach, biliousness, sour stomach, heartburn and bloating after meals.

Send for little book, mailed free, on stomach troubles, by addressing Stuart Co., Marshall, Mich. The tablets can be found at all drug stores.

The Wanamaker Store New York and the Riviera

ZERO temperature and sharp-edged winds here;—first, flowers and vernal breezes at Nice and San Remo. Here, furs and ulsters and frosted faces;—there Spring gowns and perhaps parasols.

The greatest costume show that the world sees is in progress now on the Riviera. The styles that you will wear next Spring and Summer are being worn and inspected and criticised there to-day. And there also are our representatives, all eyes and taste and memory.

The Riviera influences,—it does not dictate. Your own say-so is the final verdict. The gown that makes the most profound sensation in the Kursaal is not necessarily the one you would choose to wear yourself. Yet from this costume and that,—from a Francis fancy here and a Laferriere idea there, taking one gown and toning its colors and another's color scheme applied to a different gown,—so come the American styles through Wanamaker's. Meanwhile, and pending the arrival of the Imported Gowns, whose view-days will be later announced, we show the world's best in another line,—tailor-made costumes. New York has no debt to the Riviera for these,—in this line she teaches the world. We are showing the first and finest procurable.

Women's Handkerchiefs at Half

Would you think a "pin-hole" in the handkerchiefs would bring down its price fifty per cent? Would you think that a waver of a hundredth of an inch from a straight line in the stitching would make a 25c. handkerchief sell for 12½c.?

It's true, though, and here are the handkerchiefs, four hundred dozen of them on the main aisle tables this morning. They are 25c. handkerchiefs, and we call them "imperfect," but when you see them you will be divided between surprise at the trifling nature of the imperfections and admiration of the keenness of the eye that discovered them.

All kinds, all 25c. goods and (of course) all linen,—

Twelve-and-a-Half Cents.

Some of the New Suits

The very best that last season could show is only a bald beginning when compared with these magnificent specimens of tailoring. The time has long since past when our rigid requirements lifted the "ready-to-wear" costume out of the ranks of the scorned. Looking at these superb productions one wonders if further improvement is possible.

You have learned to know the Wanamaker costumes well. You have not learned the best about them, however, until you have seen these. Frankly, we have never shown so good before.

A strong point in our costumes is that they are exclusively ours, and you need not fear duplication. Not expensive, either:—

At $15.—Of serge and Venetian cloth; black, navy blue and tan; fly-front jacket; new shape skirt; silk-lined throughout.

At $24.—Of covert mixtures; light and dark gray; tight fitting waist; turned down revers; tailor finished with 5 rows of stitching; skirt tailored to correspond; lined throughout with multi-colored taffeta.

At $26.—Of stylish homespun mixture; double-breasted coats, loose fronts or tight fitting; sheath skirt, finished at back with 2 rows of covered buttons; front has row of covered buttons from waist to hem; exquisitely tailored; silk lined throughout.

At $30.—Of tweed, checks and invisible mixtures, light and dark colors; tight-fitting, fly-front jackets; beautifully made skirts; tailor finished and silk lined throughout.

A large number of suits at this price.

At $35.—Of chevron cheviots and tweeds; tan and gray; double-breasted. Even or single-breasted; tight-fitting waist; lined throughout with exquisite shades of taffeta. Many other styles at this price.

At $38.—Of tailor cloth, in checks; double-breasted jacket; beautifully hanging skirt; silk lined throughout.

Second Floor, Broadway.

Women's Shoes

At $1.60

They are good shoes, too; made for our regular trade by one of our regular factories. The price does seem absurd, but thousands of satisfied wearers testify to the merits of the shoes. They are made of kidskin—chrome tanned stock—soles of firm oak-tanned leather, welted and stitched. The style is the popular lace boot, and they come in all sizes and widths.

House Slippers

Draughty floors, cold feet, tardy doctor and perhaps a long and dangerous illness. It is worth a dollar to avoid the risk, isn't it? Felt Romeo slippers, good to look at and a comfort to wear, may save, or at least prolong, your life. In red, black, brown and gray, and the price is

One Dollar a Pair.
